THE INDEPENDENT POLICE COMPLAINTS OF MISCONDUCT COMMISSION (IPCCM)

Addresses welfare & well-being issues of Royal Malaysia Police (PDRM) members. Integrity & welfare issues go together. Balance is critical for police morale & performance

IPCCM FUNCTIONS

TO PROTECT AGAINST FALSE ACCUSATIONS

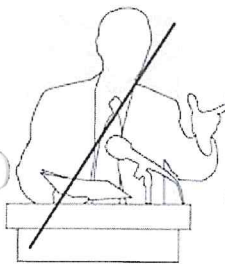

TO ESTABLISH JUSTICE, NOT AS PUNISHMENT

TO PROMOTE ACCOUNTABILITY & INTEGRITY

NO POLITICAL INTERFERENCE

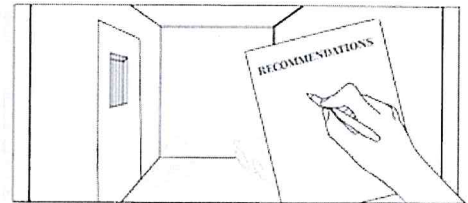

- No third party influence/political pressure in the creation process of IPCCM
- Founded on a report from the Royal Commission to Enhance the Operation & Management of PDRM
- Free to investigate, recommend & sentence without outside influence, including from the government

CONFORMS WITH THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION

- An Article 140 provision via an amendment to the Federal Constitution 1976 (Act A354) allows other authorities to take disciplinary action on a PDRM member through a Parliament Act
- Disciplinary action can be taken under a clause (1) Article 140 provision of the Federal Constitution

GOVERNMENT COMMITTED TO IMPLEMENTING INITIATIVES FOR THE WELFARE & WELL-BEING OF PDRM MEMBERS

IPCCM Bill 2019, clause 5:

- Authorises the inspection of PDRM facilities & logistical resources like living quarters, lock-ups & police stations, as well as improvement recommendations to the government
